

Dr Fani Melfou Grammaticou, is the Vice-President of our Association. She was born and lives in Thessaloniki, Macedonia, Greece. Studied in the Medical School of Aristotle University of Thessaloniki and received the specialty of Biopathologist. She is married to professor Ph. Grammaticos and have five children and ten grandchildren. She followed postgraduate studies at the Royal Postgraduate Medical School of London University on the subject of the Diagnosis of Haemoglobinopathies. Worked as Biopathologist for 32 years. She is also a novelist and has published 11 books. In 2012, The Association of Editors of Northern Greece and the Center of Civilization and Books of Northeastern Europe awarded her a Prize “For her valuable contribution in Letters and in Civilization” She is a founding Member of The International Medical Olympicus Association since 2011. She described with professor P. Grammaticos and C. Lambrianidis a new Energy Functioning Independently-EFI , coming through the eyes. This subject has been published in the 4th and 5th edn of the book Neo-Hippocratic Medicine and in the Hell, J. Nucl. in 2017.